

Why Property Meld will make your life easier.

We understand that implementing a new software isn't always easy. With our easy-to-use maintenance app, you'll have free access to hassle-free scheduling, documented communication tools, and simplified invoicing. Making your life easier even when you're in the field.

Getting Started

Create a Property Meld account by accepting the invitation we sent to your email address on file. Click "Confirm Your Information" to register.

"I find the ease of scheduling and communication with the resident to be one of the biggest benefits. The property managers can see when the job is scheduled and the correspondence between me and their residents."
